MISSING HALE NANI (BIG ISLAND) INMATE CAPTURED BY HAWAII POLICE

HAWAII – Hawaii Police confirmed with HCCC staff that they have missing Hale Nani inmate Lyndal Gilliland in custody. Hawaii PD arrested Gilliland in Kailua-Kona at 1:45 p.m., Friday (June 12).

Gilliland was reported missing from the 10 p.m. headcount on May 8.

Gilliland was serving time for Prohibited Acts Related to Drug Paraphernalia and Promoting a Dangerous Drug. His sentence end date was December of this year. Escape 2 is expected to be added to his charges.

Hale Nani, HCCC's reintegration program, is a dorm-style building located in Panaewa. Hale Nani offers offenders reintegration services and a work release program for sentenced inmates who will be released on the island of Hawaii.
