LAUMAKA WORK FURLOUGH INMATE RUNS FROM WORK FURLOUGH CENTER AFTER WORK

HONOLULU – Work furlough inmate Sean Young returned to the Laumaka Work Furlough Center after work this evening. While being processed at 6:20 p.m, he ran from the furlough center office. State Sheriffs and HPD were notified.

Young is 31-years old. He is 5'10" tall and weighs 203 lbs. He has brown hair and brown eyes.

Young is serving time for Theft, Unauthorized Control of a Propelled Vehicle and Criminal Property Damage. His next parole hearing is scheduled for October of this year. He faces an additional escape charge when found.

Young is a community custody inmate in the work furlough program with pass privileges. Community custody is the lowest classification status.

The Laumaka Work Furlough Center is an apartment-like complex off Laumaka Street, one block away from the Oahu Community Correctional Center. Inmates assigned to Laumaka are either actively seeking employment or working in the community.

If you see Young, please call 911.
