WOMEN'S COMMUNITY CORRECTIONAL CENTER INMATE RETURNED TO WCCC CUSTODY

HONOLULU – Women's Community Correctional Center (WCCC) inmate Grace Tagaolo was returned to the facility Wednesday evening. She was arrested by State Sheriffs after she voluntarily turned herself in to their booking station at 12:20 p.m. She was brought back to WCCC at 4:15 p.m.

Tagaolo failed to return to WCCC from her furlough day pass on Friday, January 30.

She was serving time for Ownership of a Prohibited Firearm, Reckless Endangering, Terroristic Threatening and Assault. Escape 2 is expected to be added as a new charge.
