WARDEN NAMED FOR HAWAII COMMUNITY CORRECTIONAL FACILITY ON THE BIG ISLAND OF HAWAII

HILO - The Hawaii Department of Public Safety is pleased to announce the promotion of Peter Cabrerros as warden of the Hawaii Community Correctional Center (HCCC), effective July 8, 2015.

“Peter is a valuable asset to the department and is a committed corrections professional,” said Public Safety Director Nolan Espinda. “He brings many years of corrections experience with him to this new position and I have no doubt HCCC will benefit by his leadership.”

Before being named warden, Peter was the chief of security at HCCC. He recently took over as acting warden in January of this year upon the retirement of the previous warden. Peter has been with the Department of Public Safety since February 1975. He started as a corrections officer and worked his way up through the ranks to Chief of Security at HCCC in 2002.

As Chief of Security, Peter was responsible for planning, directing and administering the overall security operations. He also served as a member of the institutional management staff and participated in the creation of institutional security policies and procedures. The Chief of Security also acts in the capacity of warden in their absence.
