Warden of the facility to allow the job applicant into the facility for the interview.

- g. If the job applicant is not to be interviewed, the CJIS report shall be attached to the job application with a notation as to why the applicant was not interviewed (i.e., would not pass background check, etc.).
- h. The CJIS report shall be attached to the job applicant's application and kept on file at the facility by the Chief of Security, regardless of whether the applicant was interviewed or not.

.10 Pre-Trial Defendants

- a. The formal approval process for pre-trial defendants may prevent them from receiving visitors, during the initial period of confinement. Therefore, to the extent possible, without compromising security requirements, the Warden may allow family members to visit for an initial six (6) day period of confinement, while processing their visit application.
- b. These visitors must acknowledge and follow the applicable rules, regulations, and search procedures by filling out and signing the appropriate forms.

.11 Special Visits

- a. An inmate/defendant may request a special visit by completing form PSD 8331, Special Visit Request.
- b. At the Warden's discretion, special visiting privileges may be granted to an inmate/defendant, for a visit which is outside of the general visiting schedule.
- b. Such a request may be made and authorized, because the visitor does not live on the island the inmate/defendant is incarcerated, or the individual may have special health or security needs.
- c. If such a visit request is granted, the visitor shall be informed of the specific date, time and length of time of the visit. The inmate/defendant and appropriate staff are to be notified of the special visit arrangements.
- d. Facility staff shall make a diligent effort to ensure that the approved and scheduled special visit is facilitated.

- e. The Warden, Deputy Warden, Chief of Security, or Watch Commander shall authorize the cancellation of a special visit in the event of extreme emergencies, or when other alternatives to allow the visit could not be accommodated.

.12 Special Visitors

- a. Special visitors need not be listed on the inmate/defendant's Visitor List.
- b. An exception to the normal established visiting schedule is permitted so long as it does not interfere with the orderly operations and good government of the facility. Examples of Special Visitors are:
 - 1. Inmate's attorney of record.
 - 2. Clergy for special requests (Any member of the clergy who wishes to visit regularly as a friend rather than in his/her official capacity must complete PSD 8247 to be placed on the inmate/defendant's regular visit list).
 - 3. Representatives from agencies, to include but not limited to:
 - a) Office of the Ombudsman
 - b) Local Office of the Prosecutor
 - c) Department of the Attorney General
 - d) Local Police Department
 - e) Legislators
 - f) Local City Council Representatives
 - g) Other agency representatives approved by the Warden or COS
- c. Representatives from UPW and HGEA shall be allowed into the facilities without a background check provided:
 - 1. The union representatives are on facility premises for official union business; and

2. The union representatives present appropriate credentials (i.e., identification cards, etc.).

.13 Group Visits

All visitors not related to an inmate visit are subject to background screening as covered by HAR, § 23-100-5, Group Visits. The facility may permit interested groups to visit when the safety of the facility and the visitors can be ensured, and in accordance with this policy. This is to include tours, inspections, and vendors. PSD 8320 shall be processed with a list of "group visitors," or it can be processed for an individual person.

- a. Interested community groups may request permission to visit correctional facilities. Permission of the Warden or COS is required and all visitors must comply with the rules, regulations, policies and procedures regarding visiting a correctional facility.
- b. Groups may also be invited by the Warden to participate in activities or perform entertainment functions as part of an approved program.
- c. All groups allowed to enter the facility shall be kept at a manageable number of participants, as determined by the Warden. In all cases, allowing a group to visit the facility shall not deprive any eligible inmate/defendant from attending the event.
- d. Food may be served at a charge determined in advance. However, meals shall not interfere with the orderly operation of the institution or place undue burden on the employees or inmates/defendants.
- e. Visitors may be escorted through the institution for a tour in accordance with instructions issued by the Warden or COS. Such tours shall not bring embarrassment to visitors or inmate/defendants.

.14 Inmates Convicted of Sexual Crimes Involving Minor Children

- a. Inmates with prior, current and/or pending charges of sexual crimes against minor children shall be ineligible to visit with minor children, except with their own biological, adopted, step and/or foster children.
- b. Inmates with prior, current and/or pending charges of sexual crimes against their own biological, adopted, step and/or foster children, shall be ineligible to visit with any minor children, including their own biological, adopted, step and/or foster children.

- c. Inmates with a documented history of sexual abuse of an immediate family member shall be ineligible to visit with any minor children, including their own biological, adopted, step and/or foster children.
- d. In the event Child Protective Services and/or the Court allows the inmate visitation rights with his own biological, adopted, step and/or foster minor children, then the inmate will be allowed such visits, upon approval by the Warden. This shall be documented by submitting a directive and/or court order from a government agency and/or the court.

.15 Inmates/Defendants in Administrative Segregation

- a. Inmates/Defendants in administrative segregation may have restrictions placed on visiting privileges, based on the security and care requirements for the individual and the facility.
- b. Inmates/Defendants, who are on administrative segregation, excluding those who are pending investigation, may be allowed to receive visitors, under modified conditions due to their status, to be determined by the Warden or Chief of Security.

.16 Inmates/Defendants on Disciplinary Status

- a. Inmates/Defendants who are on disciplinary status may be denied personal visits for a specified period of time. The denial of personal visits shall not exceed the imposition of discipline, as rendered by the adjustment committee officer who sanctioned that inmate to the loss of privilege.
- b. Attorneys of record for current cases shall not be denied access to inmates/defendants who are admin seg and on disciplinary status. These visits shall be allowed as long as the safety, security, and good government of the facility are not jeopardized.
 - 1. These visits will not be subject to auditory monitoring.
 - 2. An attorney may use tape recordings during the course of the visit, if the attorney certifies in writing, in advance, that the only purpose of the recording is to facilitate the attorney-client relationship and receives authorization by the Warden to bring the recording device into the facility.

.17 Transfers of Visitation Privileges

- a. When an inmate is transferred to another facility, the inmate's approved visitation list at the former facility shall be transferred to the receiving facility, and inputted into PSD's inmate management system.
- b. The receiving facility shall accept the approved visitation list and allow visitors from the list. The list shall be verified with the listed inputted on PSD's inmate management system by the transferring facility.
- c. However, this does not preclude the receiving facility from conducting its own verification of those on the list, as changes to the visitor's criminal history or other concerns may have changed. If the status of any visitor on the inmate's approved visitor list is changed by the receiving facility, the status shall be inputted in PSD's inmate management system.
- d. If the receiving facility approves and/or disapproves of any new visitor requests from the transferred inmate, all newly approved or disapproved visitors shall be inputted on PSD's inmate management system.
- e. The receiving facility Warden or Chief of Security shall be responsible for approving any new names of visitors the inmate seeks to add to the visitation list after transfer or to delete names of visitors, as may be appropriate.
- f. Any modifications to an inmate's visitation list shall be inputted in PSD's inmate management system.

.18 Minors

- a. Minors may be permitted to visit an inmate/defendant at the discretion of the Warden or COS, and subject to the provisions of Section 5.13 above.
- b. An adult, who is an authorized visitor, shall accompany the minor.
- c. A minor who is legally married shall be provided all the privileges of an adult visitor. The married minor shall be required to produce proof of marriage prior to the visit.

- d. PSD 8328 shall be completed and submitted for approval by the Warden at least ten (10) days prior to the start of the visit.
- e. If an inmate's parental rights have been terminated, minor children may not visit the inmate.
- f. If there is a protective order, temporary restraining order, injunction, and/or an official "stay away" or "do not contact" directive issued by a court, and/or a State agency and/or other governmental agency (i.e., Department of Human Services, Child Welfare Services, etc.), the minor shall not be permitted to visit the inmate.
 - 1. If there is a protective order, temporary restraining order, injunction and/or official directive prohibiting contact between a minor(s) and an inmate, this shall be inputted into PSD's inmate management system in the appropriate inmate's record.
 - 2. The minor shall be prohibited from visiting the inmate until the minor attains the age of 18, or there is an official order and/or directive rescinding the protective order, temporary restraining order, injunction and/or directive, prohibiting contact between the minor and inmate.
- g. If there is a written directive and/or court order issued by a court and/or governmental agency dissolving the protective order, temporary restraining order, injunction and/or "stay away" or "do not contact" directive, this shall be submitted to the Warden for approval. After approval by the Warden, the minor shall then be allowed to visit the inmate.

.19 Ineligible Visitors

- a. Department of Public Safety employees are not permitted to visit any inmate, unless the inmate is a member of the employee's immediate family or relative, and prior written approval to visit has been obtained by the facility Warden and acknowledged by the employee's supervisor.
- b. A visitor with a protective order against an inmate, shall not be permitted to visit that inmate.
- c. An inmate with a protective order against a visitor, shall not be permitted to visit with that visitor.

LAWS AND REGULATIONS

1. A person commits the offense of promoting prison contraband in the first degree if he/she intentionally conveys a dangerous instrument or drug to any person confined in a correctional or detention facility; or being a person confined in a correctional or detention facility, he intentionally makes, obtains, or possesses a dangerous instrument or drug.

A "dangerous instrument" shall have the same meaning as defined in HRS §707-700 (4); a dangerous instrument may only be possessed by or conveyed to a confined person with the warden's express prior approval; a "drug" shall include any of the items listed in HRS §§ 712-1240 (1)-(3) and (5)-(7); a drug may only be possessed by or conveyed to a confined person under medical supervision.

Promoting prison contraband in the first degree is a class B felony.

A person who has been convicted of a class B felony may be sentenced to ten (10) years imprisonment and a $10,000 fine. (See, Hawaii Revised Statutes § 710-1022.)

2. A person commits the offense of promoting prison contraband in the second degree if he/she intentionally conveys known contraband to any person confined in a correctional or detention facility; or being a person confined in a correctional or detention facility, he/she intentionally makes, obtains, or possesses known contraband.

"Contraband" means any article or thing which a person, confined in a correctional or detention facility, is prohibited from obtaining or possessing by statute, rule, regulation, or order.

Promoting prison contraband in the second degree is a class C felony.

A person who has been convicted of a class C felony may be sentenced to five (5) years imprisonment and a $5,000 fine. (See, Hawaii Revised Statutes § 710-1023.)

3. None but official visitors shall be allowed to visit any state correctional facility or to have any oral or written communication with the committed person, unless granted written permission by the warden of the correctional facility; nor shall any visitor deliver to or receive from any committed person any letter or message except with permission granted by the warden of a state correctional facility, in accordance with Hawaii Administrative Rules § 23-100-4(c). Unauthorized communications, passing of documents, or visiting is a class C felony.

4. A person needing a reasonable accommodation or modification in accordance with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), shall contact the Facility ADA Coordinator as soon as possible, but no later than five (5) business days before the scheduled or intended visit. Staff will make reasonable efforts to accommodate requests made within five (5) business days. Requests made within five (5) business days shall be considered, but may not be made possible.
5. Procedures at all facilities shall be consistent with the following provisions:
 - a. Every visitor upon authorized entry into a correctional facility or its grounds will be subject to a search of his or her person, vehicle, or any item in his or her possession. (See, Hawaii Administrative Rules, § 23-100-6.)
 - b. Visitors are not allowed to bring electronic equipment into a correctional facility, including but not limited to cellular or mobile phones, tablets, cameras, electronic cigarettes (e-cigarettes), etc. These items are considered contraband and will be treated as such.

Visiting an inmate is a privilege and may be restricted or denied. (See, Hawaii Administrative Rules, Title 23, Subtitle 2, Chapter 100, Visits.)

I HAVE READ AND UNDERSTAND THE LAWS AND REGULATIONS SET FORTH HEREIN AND I AGREE TO ABIDE BY THEM.
