KAUAI EXTENDED FURLOUGH INMATE FAILS TO RETURN TO COMMUNITY RESIDENCE AFTER WORK

KAUAI – Kauai Community Correctional Center (KCCC) extended furlough inmate Albert Roberts failed to return to his community residence after work yesterday (Monday) evening. He was scheduled to return home from work at 5 p.m. Kauai Police were notified by KCCC staff this morning.

Inmates in the extended furlough program live and work outside of the facility.

Roberts is 32 years old. He is 6'9", and weighs 295 lbs. Roberts has brown hair and brown eyes.

Roberts is classified as community custody which is the lowest custody level. He is serving time for Theft 2. Escape 2 is expected to be added to his charges. Roberts' next parole hearing is scheduled for July of this year.

Anyone who sees him is urged to call 911.

Questions on why we didn't notify yesterday: Roberts was living and working in the community. There are times when extenuating circumstances prevent them from returning home on time and we allow a window of time for them to show up on their own.
