LAUMAKA FURLOUGH PROGRAM INMATE FAILS TO RETURN AFTER JOB-SEEKING

HONOLULU – Work furlough program inmate Albert Kalakau failed to return from a furlough pass to the Laumaka Work Furlough Center. Kalakau left this morning on a job-seeking pass and was scheduled to return this afternoon. State Sheriffs and Honolulu Police were notified.

Kalakau was serving time for Attempted Theft 2 and Unauthorized Control of a Propelled Vehicle. Escape 2 is expected to be added to his charges. His next parole hearing was scheduled for March 2016.

51-year old Kalakau is classified as community custody which is the lowest custody level. He is 5'2" and weighs 138 lbs. He has brown hair and eyes.

If you see Kalakau, call 911.
