WCCC EXTENDED FURLOUGH INMATE FAILS TO CHECK IN AT FACILITY

HONOLULU – Extended furlough inmate Alpha Luli (pronounced E-uli) failed to report to the Women's Community Correctional Center. Luli's extended furlough pass was issued for 2/21/17 to 2/28/17. State Sheriffs and Honolulu Police were notified.

Luli is 49-years old, 5'5" tall and weighs 153 lbs. She has brown hair and brown eyes.

Luli is serving time for Theft 2. Escape 2 is expected to be added to her charges. She was tentatively approved for parole and awaiting the parole board to set the release date.

She is a community custody inmate on extended furlough with pass privileges. Community Custody is the lowest custody level. Inmates in the extended furlough program live and work outside of the facility but must check in at various times throughout the month.

Anyone who sees Luli is urged to call 911 or Sheriff Dispatch at 586-1352.
