SECOND MISSING KAUAI COMMUNITY CORRECTIONAL CENTER INMATE CONFIRMED CAPTURED

LIHUE – Kauai Police notified the Department of Public Safety that they captured missing Kauai Community Correctional Center (KCCC) inmate Kamoeli'i Kolo this afternoon. Joshua Preston was captured by Kauai Police on October 25. Both Preston and Kolo are Lifetime Stand (LTS) Inmates who made an unauthorized exit from the facility during open recreation time on October 25.

Kolo and Preston are a community custody inmate in a furlough program. Community custody is the lowest classification status. Both men face an additional escape charge.

LTS, KCCC's reintegration program, is a dorm-style building that focuses on offender reintegration services and a work release program for sentenced inmates who will be released on the island of Kauai.

###

Kamoelii Kolo is currently serving a misdemeanor sentence of Restricted Possession/Sale of Electronic Guns.

Joshua Preston is currently serving a misdemeanor sentence for Criminal Contempt, Abuse of a Family/Household Member, Driving Without a License. He's also pending trial for Resisting an Order to Stop Motor Vehicle and Reckless Driving
