Subject: [EXTERNAL] JCH Webinar: Corrections and COVID-19

Falcon, Inc. has coordinated a series of webinars that will focus on the impact of COVID-19 on correctional and detention facilities. There is no cost to attend these webinars but we do expect the available 'seats' to go quickly so register quickly!

As the nation grapples with the COVID-19 pandemic, the virus is making its way into correctional facilities, threatening not only the physical, but also the emotional health of staff and inmates alike. During this public health crisis, identifying the specific vulnerabilities of correctional facilities and the people within them is critical.

Maintaining Mental Wellness of Staff and Inmates During Custodial Pandemonium

Presenters will review the mechanisms of fear and anxiety influencing atypical human behavior during pandemic events. Specifically, this webinar will examine the relationship between pandemic activity, stress, and trauma, to strengthen the attendee's ability to maintain effective care and custody of incarcerated people, while supporting resiliency in the workforce. Attendees will leave the webinar equipped with a toolkit of practical strategies and resources for mitigating the spread of infectious disease, as well as strategies for combating pandemic-related angst and apathy in correctional staff.

Thu, Apr 9th, 2020 1:00 PM ET | Speaker: Dr. Robin Timme

Presenters will discuss the psychological impact of pandemics on special populations within correctional systems. Attention will be paid to those with Serious Mental Illness, Substance Use Disorders, the aging population, and the often-overlooked individual with no diagnosed mental illness, struggling with rational fear and anxiety responses to the pandemic. Attendees will leave with an understanding of the impact of stress and trauma on these special populations, along with tools to help most effectively provide care and custody within the correctional setting.
