INMATE LEAVES HALE NANI REINTEGRATION CENTER UNAUTHORIZED

HILO – A Hawaii Island inmate made an unauthorized exit from the Hale Nani Reintegration Center this afternoon.

Larry Kamalii was seen running away from the back side of the center at about 3:15 p.m. Security staff immediately notified Hawaii Police and began searching the surrounding area but were unable to locate him.

Kamalii is 36-years-old, weighs 200 lbs., and is 5'7' tall. He has brown eyes and brown hair.

Kamalii is serving time for Promotion of a Dangerous Drug 3, Possession of a Firearm and Place to Keep a Firearm. He is a community custody inmate. Community custody is the lowest classification level.

If you see him, call 911.

Hale Nani, HCCC's reintegration program, is an open dorm-style building located in Panaewa. Hale Nani offers offenders reintegration services and a work release program for sentenced inmates who will be released on the island of Hawaii.
