II. INTRODUCTION

The Hawaii Paroling Authority (HPA) is a quasi-judicial body, which is attached to the Department for administrative purposes. The mission of this body is to 1) evaluate and grant parole when there is reasonable probability that the prisoner concerned will live and remain at liberty without violating the law and that the prisoner's release is not incompatible with the welfare and safety of the public; and, 2) to utilize the agency and community resources as a link for parolees to reintegrate into society.

The purpose of this position is for the protection of the community and the rehabilitation of the offender to determine the appropriate minimum term of imprisonment; granting or denying parole; revocation of parole whenever necessary; and properly supervising those on parole. The HPA consists of five board members who also investigate and make recommendations of applications for gubernatorial pardons received, interprets the parole program to the public and recommends sound parole legislation and administration.
